Our Strategy

Reformation in Foreign Missions

What is the most successful and cost-effective means of presenting the gospel of Jesus Christ to those who have not heard it in various places in the world?

In the past Western missionaries would go to countries where the gospel was never proclaimed. It was necessary, because there was little or no knowledge of Jesus Christ in those lands.

Today we have dedicated Christians in every country all around the world.

So now we have a new paradigm. The most successful and certainly the most cost-effective means is to enable dedicated and talented pastors and evangelists to proclaim the gospel in their own countries.

These wonderful disciples of the Lord do not have to learn a new language, they do not have to study nuances of a new culture, they do not have to go home on furlough. And as a bonus, they can usually do a much better job at only 1/10 the cost or less of a foreign missionary.

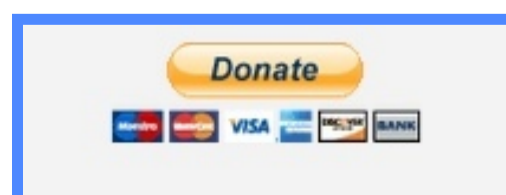

For more details on this concept we recommend the book Reformation in Foreign Missions by Bob Finley. You can read and download this book for free here.
