New Churches, Growing Stronger

Our associate Raphael in Uganda is originally from the neighboring country of Kenya. He married a young Christian woman from Uganda whom he met in college in India.

Raphael has lived in Uganda for nine years. Over that period of time he and his associates have started 17 new churches.

Raphael believes that new churches should be strengthened spiritually and grow in depth as they also reach out and plant new churches.

I received this message from Raphael:

Christ In You pastors just arrived for the leaders' conference in Mukono. We brought all the pastors for a conference hosted by a friend's church to train them on leadership, ministry, ethics, prayer, evangelism and seeking God.

Today I received this message from Raphael:

Yesterday at church we hosted our pastors from northern Uganda. They later travelled back to their churches. They have learned a lot on ministry during the conference.

$400 to Perpetually Support a Pastor

Because of your generosity we recently were able to raise $2,800 to buy a $400 plot of land for seven pastors. This has been remarkably useful in sustaining them in their ministry because they're able to use this land for growing crops which they can use themselves and also sell. One pastor gave us a video "thank you" which you can see here.

The wonderful aspect of this kind of support is that it is ongoing. The pastor is enabled to be largely self-sufficient. While the profit from his farming activities do not supply 100% of his needs, they do help tremendously.

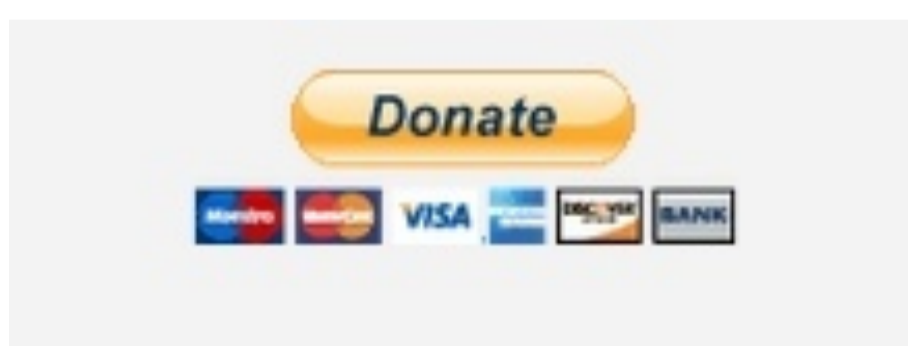

Now we want to continue with our next goal of giving $400 to each of 10 pastors. I wonder if you can help us with this $4,000 goal? These young churches are growing strong and rapidly. The churches are comprised of members who were largely steeped in poverty. They cannot afford to support their pastor as they would like.

They need our help.

This one-time gift will sustain them year after year.

Thanks so much!
